TROUBLE BREWING.

Threatened Invasion of Tennessee by Kentucky Miners

TO LIBERATE THE PRISONER MINERS.

Telegraphic Correspondence Between the Governors of the Two States—The Invaders Will be Amendable to the Laws of Tennessee.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 19.—More trouble seems to be brewing in the Tennessee coal mines. Gov. Buchanan yesterday afternoon sent the following telegram:

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 18, 1891.

To Gov. Brown, Frankfort, Ky.:

Reliable information received here indicates that miners from Kentucky are preparing to attack and release convicts in the branch prisons at Briceville and Coal Creek, Tenn. These parties have once before invaded Tennessee and released convicts. With this information before you I am satisfied you will use your influence and power to keep down threatened lawlessness on the part of citizens of your state.

[Signed.] JOHN P. BUCHANAN, Governor.

To this Governor Brown replied:

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 18, 1891.

To Gov. Buchanan, Nashville, Tenn.:

Your dispatch received. In so far as I may have any power will do what I can to prevent the anticipated trouble. However, would suggest that if citizens of Kentucky enter Tennessee for an unlawful purpose they are liable to punishment under the laws of your state.

[Signed.] JOHN YOUNG BROWN.

The prospective trouble is due, no doubt, to the lack of action on the part of the Tennessee legislature.

Looking to the Lessees for Relief.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The senate yesterday took up the session joint resolution expressing it as the sense of the general assembly that in order to avoid bloodshed and a labor war the lessees should take the convicts out of the mine at Briceville and furnish a check weighman for the free miners. After a warm debate the resolution was adopted by a rising vote—14 affirmative and 11 negative votes being cast.

THE MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

The Movement Looked Upon with Gravest Apprehenstons—A Sanguinary Proclamation.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 18.—The revolutionary movement in Mexico is looked upon with the gravest apprehension by the authorities of that republic. A dispatch received from the City of Mexico states that President Diaz to-day called his political counselors around him and discussed at length the impending trouble.

Information received here today from Monterey, Saltillo, and towns along the Rio Grande border states that the following proclamation was spread broadcast in those cities on the night of September 16 by unknown agents of the revolutionists.

The purpose of this revolution is to restore the constitutional government in Mexico under the constitution of 1857; to overthrow the Diaz despotism, and, after capturing Diaz, to condemn him to death, a traitor to his country.

From and upon the issuance of this proclamation all Mexico is declared to be in a state of military siege, and is placed under martial law.

The document has created a profound sensation in all parts of the republic where it has been circulated.

Gen. Stanley, commander of the department of Texas, yesterday received a dispatch from Capt. Randall at Fort Ringgold, dated September 17, stating that detachments from Briners, Matamoras and Nueva Leon were in hot pursuit of Garcia, and that he will doubtless be defeated and his band dispersed.

The Ruined City.

MADRID, Sept. 18.—At Consuegra yesterday two men were arrested charged with robbing the dead. The prisoners had in some instances acted as the receivers of stolen goods.

It is now estimated that the damage by the floods will amount to $4,000,000.

As a result of the flood the river Arangullos has changed its course to a considerable extent.

Another Bad Prairie Fire.

WILLMA, Minn., Sept. 19.—Tremendous fires have been raging west of here and large tracts of prairie land are burnt over. A strong wind has made it impossible to stay the fury of the flames. A great deal of hay in stack has been destroyed and three or four miles of railroad track has been burned and made impassable. Origin of the fire unknown.

Clouds of Smoke Over the Cherokee Strip.

GUTHRIE, Okla., Sept. 18.—Great clouds of smoke are rising from the Cherokee strip to-day and thousands of acres are being burned over. The cause of the fire is not known, but it is thought that the boomers have commenced their raid and are carrying out their threat to burn the grass off the entire country.

The Non-Partisan Women's Christian Temperance Union.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 19.—Ellen J. Phinney, president of the Non-Partisan National Women's Christian Temperance union, issued a call yesterday for the second annual convention to be held at Brooklyn, November 10 to 13. November 3 is designated as a day of prayer.

Two Indians Killed in a Drunken Quarrel.

SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 19.—In a drunken quarrel, yesterday, between John and Dan Squands, two Indians, and Charles Atherton and James Bradshaw, two white men, the two Indians were killed. Atherton was arrested, but Bradshaw is still at large.

Purchased a Monopoly.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 19.—The East Tennessee & Georgia railroad has bought out the White Star Co., of Rome, Ga., and now has a monopoly down the Coosa river, as the steamship company owned the only line of steamboats on the river.

THE NEWS OF THE DAY

A Disastrous Prairie Fire in North Dakota.

A BIG SLICE OF CONSCIENCE MONEY.

Bad Wreck on the New York Central—Fatal Pistol Practice—Hanged Himself—A Wife Murderer Hanged, Etc., Etc.

A Disastrous Prairie Fire.

BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 19.—A disastrous prairie fire has burned over a large portion of Emmons county, 60 miles south of here. Driven by a strong west wind a sheet of flame as high as houses' tops swept over the country from the Missouri river past Williamsport, which place narrowly escaped, and into the southeastern portion of the country. Details are meager. No mail was received from Williamsport last evening. The loss will be heavy, as a large area of range lands was burned over. Many farmers lost their entire crops and buildings. It is reported that one man was fatally burned.

A Big Slice of Conscience Money.

BOSTON, Sept. 19.—Upon Tuesday of this week Mr. B. L. M. Tower, of Ball & Tower, attorneys for parties unknown, paid into the State national bank $19,180 as "conscience money." Mr. Tower himself does not know from whom this money comes, but it is believed to come from the executor of some estate. The only clue the bank has is the fact that in 1865, while the teller's back was turned, a bag of gold containing about $8,000 was taken. This amount taken at its premium value at that time and with interest compounded amounts to about the sum turned into the bank.

Fatal Pistol Practice at Middlesborough, Ky.

MIDDLESBOROUGH, Ky., Sept. 19.—Fred Jones a young business man of this city, shot and seriously wounded the notorious Gillis Johnson, Thursday night, in self-defense, Johnson having pulled two revolvers on him. Jones made his escape and later, was shot, down from behind by Jim Renfro, a noted desperado. The ball entered Jones' back below the left shoulder blade and passing below the heart came out in front. The wound may prove fatal.

Renfro is in custody and Judge Rhor has refused him bail. Further trouble is feared.

A Bad Wreck on the New York Central.

PORT BYRON, N. Y., Sept. 18.—A bad wreck occurred on the New York Central railroad here this morning. An east-bound freight train while stopping for water was struck by another east-bound train and ten cars were smashed and three tracks blocked. The engine and caboose were ruined. Six cattle and twenty-five sheep were killed. Two colored men who were stealing a ride were seriously injured. Engineer Powell escaped by jumping. On both side trains are blocked for miles. Only two tracks are clear.

Hanged Himself.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 19.—Wm. M. Hemmingbouse, proprietor of the St. Paul Milk Co., and an old resident, went into his cellar at 3 o'clock yesterday morning and hanged himself to a beam. His body was not discovered by his family until morning. He had been in ill health for a year and was worried by failure in his business.

A Double Wife Murderer Hanged.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 19.—Albert Mora, alias Frank Kitchen, the negro wife murderer, was hanged in the county jail at 10:43 yesterday morning. Kitchen confessed the killing of his first wife in 1889, and his second wife in April last. Both murders were diabolical in their character.

Killed by a Bursting Emery Wheel.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 19.—Wm. Walsh, aged 19, was instantly killed by the bursting of an emery wheel in the shop of the G. F. Warner Manufacturing Co. His skull was crushed and three ribs broken by the flying fragments of the wheel. Several others were slightly injured.

Millions of Feet of Lumber Burned.

THORPE, Wis., Sept. 19.—Between 3,500,000 and 4,000,000 feet of pine and hardwood lumber belonging to Nye & Hudson was destroyed by fire Thursday night. The lumber was insured for $14,250 and the loss above the same $8,000.

Catholic Church and Priest's House Burned.

SAUK RAPIDS, Minn., Sept. 19.—The Catholic church in the town of Alberto, this county, in course of construction, together with the priest's house burned yesterday. Loss, $15,000.

A Loud Reception to the Performance of Lohengrin.

PARIS, Sept. 19.—During the performance of Lohengrin last evening, when the second act was in progress, fetid chemicals were thrown from the gallery into the orchestra. A police commissary gave warning that if this was repeated he would clear the galleries. This put an end to this form of annoyance. Later on a row occurred in the box office owing to Nevanche editors trying to force an entrance on irregular tickets.

Outside the opera house slight disorders took place all the evening, but the police vigorously prevented the demonstrations from being serious and made about 100 arrests. Ten of those arrested on Thursday were sentenced from one week to four months in prison.

A Sick Congressman.

A PLUCKY WOMAN.

With Gun in Hand She Defends Her Husband and Forces a Mob to Retreat.

HAMPTON, Va., Sept. 18.—Immediately after the adjournment of the Haines-Hannegan indignation meeting here last night another meeting was held. It was called by the jury who had been so severely denounced. They declared that Prosecuting Attorney Lipscomb was the instigator of the meeting and should be punished; so they started at once for Old Point to give him a sound thrashing.

Lipscomb was found at the Hygiea hotel, but he had prepared a warm reception for them. Just as the men walked into the corridor, Mrs. Lipscomb called for and obtained a gun, saying she was a better shot than her husband. With the murderous weapon in hand she soon forced the crowd of indignant jurors to retire to the street. Her action was loudly applauded.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 19.—There was a riot on an excursion train over the Louisville & Nashville road from Nashville yesterday morning en route to the fair here. The difficulty took place near Jett's station, and a number of shots were fired. Henry Settles was instantly killed and Tom Brown was shot through the neck. It was built with all the latest improvements. The machinery and contents were valued at $95,000 and are a total loss. In Collision.

RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 19.—The westbound passenger train over the Indianapolis division on the Pennsylvania system, due at 6 o'clock last night came in collision with a work train at the Sixteenth-street crossing. ### Don't Like the Sugar Bounty.

The Democratic organ on Prairie street succeeded in carving out of two sentences, beginning in the middle of one and ending in the middle of another, in a speech delivered by Major McKinley the words, "Who pays the taxes? You did it all. The foreigner does not pay a dollar; the tax gatherer cannot reach him," and referring the matter to us for an explanation. This we did, quoting all that McKinley said on the subject down to where he said: "The only way to reach the foreigner is to meet him at the ports on our seaboard when he comes here with his products to sell them in the best market in the world and tax him there."

This was a fair explanation and we asked that paper to publish the full extract of McKinley's speech for the benefit of those of its readers it misled. It has utterly ignored our request, and instead propounds another conundrum as follows:

If the foreigner really does pay the tariff tax as Editor Calhoun insists, will he please explain to a wondering world, why the tariff on sugar was removed, and also explain why, when it was removed, the price went down and consumers got cheaper sugar. If he assigns as a reason the claim that the sugar tax was a revenue tax how will he justify the sugar bounty that the McKinley bill provides for?

This interrogatory is based on a statement made by Maj. McKinley in that part of his speech which the Review garbled, to the effect that the Ohio farmer sells his wheat in Buffalo for $1.00 a bushel and the Canadian farmer sells his wheat in Buffalo for $1.00 a bushel. The Ohio farmer takes his dollar home, but the Canadian farmer has to leave with the United States government 25 cents for every bushel he sells for the privilege of this market, and only takes 75 cents home with him. This is so plain that the average Democrat can understand it if he wants to. The Canadian in this case pays tariff taxes to the government.

As to the second element in the proposition the editor of the Review correctly anticipates that the REPUBLICAN would say that the tariff on sugar was a revenue tariff and was added to the cost of the article in a great measure, but he desires to know how, if such an attitude is assumed, we can "justify the sugar bounty that the McKinley bill provides for."

That happens to be a simple matter, also. The Democratic party wants a tariff on sugar which amounts to about 3 cents a pound on every pound of sugar consumed, amounting to about $56,000,000 a year, or a tax amounting to about a dollar a year for each man, woman and child in the United States. The sugar bounty provided by the McKinley bill is 2 cents a pound on the sugar we produce, which will amount to about $10,000,000 a year, or about 15 cents a year for each person in the country. On this line the bounty provision of the McKinley bill is justifiable, and has become very plain to the people. But there is another line on which the sugar bounty is justifiable. It was not adopted to enrich the sugar barons of Louisiana, as Northern Democrats love to claim, but was adopted to encourage the development of making sugar from the sugar beet. The result so far has been the erection of six or eight enormous factories in California, Nebraska and Kansas.

By the stimulus of a sugar bounty both France and Germany have so encouraged the production of beet sugar that they not only produce all they consume but have sugar to sell. Patriotic Americans believe the same can be done in America, and under the bounty that effort has begun in earnest, and millions of pounds of sugar will be added to our production of sugar in America this year

Look on This.

The democratic ticket in New York gives universal satisfaction. To all outside appearance, the utmost harmony prevails and well posted politicians do not hesitate to predict a sweeping victory for democracy. Major Grant predicts that Fowler will be elected by 50,000 plurality. The nomination is undoubtedly a strong one, and with a united party the result is beyond question. The "amiable husband of a very rich wife" the ex-collector, will not be in it. —Decatur Review.

AND THEN ON THIS.

Being requested by the press to announce my intentions relating to the nominations of the Saratoga convention, I would say that my political action has always been controled by my sense of duty as a citizen. I never recognize conflicting party obligations. Believing in this instance that not only have the interests of the whole people been sacrificed, but the existence of the Democratic party jeopardized, for behind the nomination and in absolute control of the party are men whose every sentiment of patriotism in subject either to their personal ambition or their self-greed, and the administration of public affairs is shaped to perpetuate their rule. So complete is the power of these men and so dictatorial have they become that members of the party are but serfs so far as political action is concerned. Continued subservience must but make the condition too degarding to be borne by American citizens. There is but one way to dislodge the usurpers. The temporary defeat of the party will be harmless compared to the effect of their control. For the welfare of the state, and in the interest of the Democratic party to me my duty appears clear, which is to oppose the election of the nominees of the convention to such extent as may be within my power, and in such manner as may seem best to accomplish that purpose.

[Signed.] EDWARD F. JONES.

Mr. Jones is the present Democratic Govenor of New York.

EX-SENATOR INGALLS says a good many things and often hits some plain facts as well as well as some palpable errors. Speaking of the probable result of the next national Republican convention Mr. Ingalls said that if Mr. Harrison desired a renomination he would get it. "You know," he said, "that about this time during Cleveland's administration there was more or less hostility shown by the leaders of the Democratic party to the renomination of Cleveland, but when the convention met some of the very men who had been criticising the President were climbing over one another to have him renominated by acclamation. Of course Harrison will be renominated; not to do so would be an admission that policy had been a failure. The opposition to the administration comes from men who are piqued at their own failure to accomplish something. The country is not concerned by the disappointment of office-seekers." There is a good deal of good logic in what he says and yet, while the logic is in favor of the renomination of a President who has given the country a good administration, the party may, if it sees fit, nominate another man without discrediting itself, but when disappointed politicians have succeeded in doing so it has invariably proven disastrous to the party in which it was done.

Mr. John C. Goodwin, a carpenter of Danville, Ill., writes: "About two weeks ago a heavy saw log fell upon my foot very badly crushing it, so that I was unable to walk at all. ### The "Shenandoah" Drama.

A large audience should greet that deservedly popular play, "Shenandoah," at the Grand Monday night. It is not too much to say that "Shenandoah" is dramatically one of the strongest and most intensely interesting plays before the public. The scene is laid in the Shenandoah valley during the war for the Union and the flavor of war incidents and romance render it thrillingly exciting. The author has been fortunate in so constructing his play that it does not appeal to sectional prejudice, but is as popular with the veteran who wore the gray as the one who wore the blue. The necessary love story is well told and fittingly developed, and the element of comedy so essential to the success of every drama enters largely into its composition. Few modern plays have been so well adapted to the popular idea as this work of Mr. Howard's. The company is good without exception and the piece is given a most artistic presentation. This is not the ingenious opinion of the ubiquitous advance agent, but an honest recognition of a worthy play, whose well earned fame precedes it.

You Should Not Be Without It.

Every family is liable to have a hereditary taint of Consumption It may date back three or even four generations This fact makes it necessary always to have on hand a remedy with which to combat this formidable disease A Cough when taken at first can readily be cured before it gets a serious hold on the lungs. Ballard's Horehound Syrup, when taken in its early stages, will cure Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of the Throat, Lungs and Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of the Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, etc. It is pleasant to take, perfectly safe and can always be depended on Sold by Swearingen & Tyler. 3

I had tried several doctors in this state and several in Iowa, but they could do nothing for me. I was finally induced to try a bottle of your medicine. After using three bottles of it I was entirely cured. I cannot say enough in its praise. I wish that every family knew the worth of it as I do and I am sure they would

Old People at Pana.

The old settlers of Shelby, Christian, Fayette and Montgomery held a reunion at Fairfield on Wednesday. Hon. Levi Scott called the meeting to order, prayer was offered by Elder J. Vance, followed by an address by Judge J. E Southwick, in which he gave reminiscences of the trials of early pioneers in what is now Illinois The remarks of Judge Hicks Dawdy related to the early educational and political giants, in which the ladies were given praise Hon A. W. Smith, of Oconee, read an original poem. Mr. O H Paddock spoke about prices of wheat in 1837 to 1847, when 10c per bushel was a good price at the farmer's door, he told how four yoke of oxen were used to haul a wagonload of sassafras roots into Galena The oldest living female child born within the association's district is Mrs. P. A. Abrell, formerly Rhodes, who was born in Shelby county in 1824; oldest living male child, Judge Hicks Dawdy, born in 1820, and has since resided within twenty miles of Fairfield. Hon. Levi Scott continues as president, and G. P. Lawrence secretary The regular annual reunion of the old settlers of Wayne county was held in the city park, and to-day the old settlers listened to an address by Hon George Hunt, attorney general of Illinois. He was followed by William Mayberry and J. J. Bogarth, old settlers of the county. Uncle Nelson Borah, of Arrington, won the premium offered to the person who had lived the longest in the county. The novel feature of the day was the marriage of a couple on the platform—Miss Pethjohn and Fred Miller, both of Bedford township, who captured as a premium a fine set of china dishes.

In Honor of Her Guest.

Miss Mae Harwood entertained a party of friends last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Annette Reeme, of Chicago The evening was most agreeably passed with music, dancing and games, the principal amusement being that of hunting for hidden peanuts, the first prize for which was awarded to Murray Millikin and the second to Miss Nellie Moore Refreshments were served. ### Barnum Day in Decatur.

The great and wonderful Barnum & Bailey show brought thousands of strangers to Decatur, and they left considerable money with us. The show gave two great performances, the total receipts aggregating about $12,000. At the afternoon hour the large tent was nearly filled, and at night the crowd was about one-third smaller. The "Nero" spectacle, the gorgeous character of which can be seen nowhere to greater advantage than under a circus tent, was alone worth the price of admission. The circus attractions and special features were so numerous, bewildering and perfect that many in the vast audiences were unable to observe all to good advantage, but they had to be given sometimes six acts at a time to produce all within the two hours' limit. It is even difficult to enumerate and praise all in limited space Suffice it to say that Decatur was never before given a more liberal and perfect circus and menagerie, including as it did the brightest stars of the arena and the finest collection of animals and horses ever shown beneath a tent. Mr. Bailey occupied a chair at the entrance, and his great army of people attended to their separate duties promptly—every man knowing his place. The members of the press are especially indebted to F. L Perley for courtesies extended. He fills his position with grace and dignity, cheerfully giving entertaining and instructive information. Both Mr Perley and Fred Lawrence said B. & B have the "greatest show on earth," and they told the truth. Merchants generally did big business, and the Citizens' electric street car company as well as the hacks, were taxed to their utmost capacity to give transportation for the people in exchange for the nimble nickels.

Picnic and Circus Party.

Mrs. Charles A. Ewing and Miss Belle Ewing gave a most enjoyable picnic party last evening at the Ewing palatial residence on Forest avenue. At the approach of darkness large lamps were used to illuminate the lawns and to provide lights for the guests at the supper table, the feast being spread upon long tables on the lawn. Later in the evening the entire party repaired to the circus, secured seats together and enjoyed the circus immensely. Those in the party were Messrs L. Burrows, D. A. Maffit, C A. Ewing, G. W Powers, Albert Barnes, J. K. Warren, Dr. Will Barnes. Theron Powers, and their wives, Miss Josie Gill, of Indianapolis, Misses Bessie Warren, Laura Johns, Belle Ewing, Ida Jones, Marian Ewing, Mollie Barnes, Mary Voorhies, Maud and Belle Burrows, Harriet Howell, Mrs. Sedgwick, Dr. W. Barnes, John Clugston, W. C Johns, Bering Burrows, Walter Strange, Lister Wymond, of Bloomington, Frank and Ed. Powers, Cyrus Randolph and Parke Hammer

W. C. T U NOTES.

At the meeting yesterday the yearly report of the secretary was given Progress has been made in various lines of work, some discouragements regarding efforts to replenish the treasury, but much earnest effort on the part of many, were shown It was voted to appoint a committee to assist in raising funds for the work of the society

The superintendent of evangelistic work reported plans for increasing interest in the gospel meetings on Sunday afternoons Next Sunday a "white ribbon love feast" will be held and a large attendance is expected The program will be varied and full of interest Messages from Miss Willard, Mrs. Woodbridge and others will be read and remarks made by a number of persons on the subject of "What the white ribbon has done for them Mrs Isabella Stafford will preside at this love feast, of which all may partake and to which all are earnestly invited

Monday, September 28th, is the birthday of Frances E Willard It will be celebrated by the W C T U women of this country in a new and practical manner A crusade for member ship will be made on that day, by which it is expected to greatly increase the numbers of the white ribbon army House to house visitation with the enrollment tablets and bows of white ribbon will give many who are in sympathy with the work an opportunity to identify themselves with the workers

Under the head of "Good Tidings" was mentioned the refusal, by a prominent citizen, to rent a building for a saloon, though offered $25 per month more than is paid by the present occupant.

Extracts from rules governing the pupils and teachers of the public schools were quoted Those prohibiting the use of tobacco about the school buildings and enjoining "upon all teachers to regard the moral and social culture of their pupils as not less important than their mental discipline" were received with expressions of marked approval The clause making health lessons to be given in connection with reading in the fall term of fifth and sixth grades may be made a stepping stone towards complying with the law for scientific temperance instruction

That a Union less than a year old in Harriman, Tenn, a town only eighteen months old, is planning to build a $5000 temperance temple, is surely "good tidings" May it not give inspiration to those who tire of paying rent? Who will give a lot for a Decatur temperance temple?

BURNT OUT.

The Home of Joe Michl, Jr., Partly Destroyed by Fire.

The frame residence of Joe Michl, jr., at 404 South Union street, corner of West Jefferson, caught fire from a defective flue in the kitchen about 1 o'clock this afternoon and was badly damaged, the loss aggregating about $600; covered by insurance with Leforgee & Son. The alarm brought the neighbors and fire department to the scene, the former doing effective service in the speedy removal of the more valuable contents of the rooms, including some of the carpets. The entire roof was in flames when the firemen began throwing water from direct pressure and the Chemical, and soon the fire was under control, but not before the kitchen and dining room were partly wrecked as well as the roof over the entire house. Joe, who is associated with his father in the cigar business, and is a member of the Opera house Orchestra, was not unduly excited by the misfortune which had befallen him. His only request was that the orchestra and band kindly defer a serenade until after the house is repaired and the household effects put to rights again.

REV. J. P. DIMMITT ACQUITTED

Result of a Trial of a Former Decatur Pastor.

The Bloomington Pantagraph in its Conference news to-day gives place to the following paragraph:

The trial of Rev. J. P. Dimmitt that has been going on at the Second Presbyterian church ever since day before yesterday at 3 o'clock p. m., reached an end last night at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dimmitt was acquitted and restored to his former good standing, none of the specifications being sustained. The story of Rev. Dimmitt is a peculiar one. About thirty-four years ago he borrowed $1100 of Mr. Crofts, himself formerly a Methodist minister. Rev. Dimmitt lost his money, it is said, in a coal mine, but every year is paid up the interest money promptly, thus keeping the promises alive. This interest added to the principal has in time amounted to over $3,000. Mr. Crofts lived at Illiopolis, dropped preaching and drifted into other channels. Rev. Dimmitt was placed on the superannuated list and moved to Texas. Both are very old men, and the case was peculiar in many respects.

$37,500 In Sight.

Bloomington Pantagraph: As a result of the educational anniversary held at the Wesleyan last night, and the earnest solicitation of Bishop Warren and others, the sum of $5,000 was subscribed to the institution. This means a good deal more than it seems. Some time ago Dr. Buck, of Decatur, pledged himself to give $12,500, if $25,000 would be raised by others. All but $5,000 of that sum had been secured and last night's work completed the amount. This endows the Wesleyan with $37,500. Dr. Buck has fully secured his donation to the university, and all concerned are jubilant over the result.

Death of O. N. Stafford.

A telegram was received in Decatur last night stating that O. N. Stafford, of Springfield, was not expected to live through the night. This morning another message was received stating that Mr. Stafford had died. He was a brother of Henry H. Stafford and Nelson Stafford, of Decatur. His age was 75 years. He was a very wealthy man, leaving considerable cash, and property at Springfield and St. Augustine, Florida, at which last named place he always spent his winters. Henry Stafford left for Springfield this morning to attend the funeral of his brother.

Pistols at Midnight.

After the big show last night, at the solemn midnight hour, when the good people in the vicinity of Franklin and William streets had retired to their apartments, they were startled by hearing four shots from a revolver in rapid succession, followed by loud talking. There were several men in the party from which the shots came, and one man appeared to be anxious to explain some statement that had been made. There was no bloodshed and no arrests.

A Change of Firm.

The firm of Hanks & Patterson, grocers at 143 South Water street, has been changed. Frank Patterson has sold his interest to John I. Hanks, of Harristown, and the business will be continued under the firm name of Hanks & Co. Mr. Patterson has gone to Gunnison, Colo., to look after some mining interests which he and Mr. Hi Hanks have in that region.

Ed. Hill, of Boody, Robbed.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hill, of Boody, returned last night from a trip to Missouri. While leaving the train at St. Joseph, Mo., Mr. Hill was relieved of about $65 by robbers. He says it was done by three men who surrounded him as he was getting off the train. The stolen property consisted mainly of notes.

Did Not Go.

Dr. W. J. Chenoweth did not go to Michigan this morning with the Decatur hunting party. He is at home attending to his professional duties as usual. He will not go to Michigan at all. If he goes hunting this year he will go South with a party about Nov 1.

District Convention.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of the 14th congressional district assembled in Lincoln from Tuesday, Sept. 15, to Thursday, Sept. 17. The hospitable citizens opened wide their doors and entertained the ladies in a most charming way.

Wednesday morning the convention, by invitation from Prof. Turner, held devotional exercises at the university. The exercises were conducted by Mrs. Hathaway, of Normal. Miss Mary Gower gave a report address to the students. Carriages were also furnished to convey the ladies to the Institute for the Feebele Minded.

The convention was a success in every particular and the spirit harmonious. Miss M. E. Crissey, of Decatur, was re-elected district president without one dissenting voice. Other officers were elected as follows: District secretary, Mrs. Clive R. Holt, of Decatur; district treasurer, Mrs. Emma Lewis, of Macon district financial secretary, Mrs. S. F. Wilson, of Normal.

Prof. Turner and wife and Prof. Thompson rendered valuable aid in the way of music. MARY C. GREGORY.

Say It is All Right.

The REPUBLICAN reporter happened in at the Woman's Exchange to-day, when two ladies engaged in a discussion of the dispute at Springfield on the jelly cake question and both agreed at once that angel food cake with jelly is very properly jelly cake, and that corn starch can be used properly to make a corn dodger. The ladies marveled that anyone should object to the award of the premiums for the angel food jelly cake and the corn starch corn dodger. But here is more trouble and a chance for the Decatur Art class to pass judgment; another question has been sprung, as the following dispatch will show:

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Sept. 18.—There is another portentous kick in regard to premiums awarded at the county fair. A special premium was awarded for the "best oil painting of an animal." The prize was awarded to a young lady in West Springfield, who painted an owl. The other artists are objecting on the ground that an owl is not an animal.

The Oklahoma Lands.

The funeral will take place Sunday morning at 10:30 from Union church, nine miles north east of Decatur.

ON Sunday Rev. E. J. Durham, of Sullivan, will occupy the pulpit at the First M. E. church, this city.

Pastry Without Butter.

Light, flaky and digestible pie crust and all kinds of fine pastry can be made with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder without butter or with one half the usual portion, if preferred, or with a small quantity of lard or other shortening as desired. Pie crust made in this way is more wholesome and digestible besides being more economical and easier prepared in addition to saving all the butter if desired. One-third the flour is also dispensed with, and the crust is rolled that much thinner, the raising qualities of Dr. Price's Powder swelling it to the requisite thickness. Those who enjoy the appetizing qualities of the delicious home made pie will rejoice to know this secret.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is the only powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been ques-

Accidents to Aeronauts.

A dispatch from Meriden, Conn., says: "One of the features of the state fair here has been the balloon ascension made every afternoon during fair week. Prof. Northrop has been advertised to make the ascensions, but yesterday evening he was indisposed and could not go up. James Robinson, one of his helpers, agreed to take his place on the trapeze. At 2 o'clock the balloon was inflated and all was ready. Robinson took his place and at a signal the balloon was released. When it reached a point of 100 feet one of the ropes on the trapeze broke and Robinson lost his hold on the remaining rope and fell to the ground. He was picked up unconscious and medical aid summoned. He was found to be paralyzed from his shoulders down, his right leg broken, and he is suffering internal injuries. It is thought that he will die. At 5 o'clock Frank Bronson, another helper, agreed to make the second trip. He went up to a height of 1000 feet, and attempted to release the parachute, but could not. The balloon was caught by a current of air and carried away. Bronson held on, and when the balloon began to descend he was dragged through tree tops. When found, four miles away, he was suffering from exhaustion and internal injuries. He is in a critical condition.

Desires it to be known

That he is far in advance of any previous season, and we candidly believe, of any house in this part of the country, in having novelties that are exclusive in their character. We are pleased always to place any shoes shown from our store in critical comparison with similar shoes purchased or obtainable in any retail store in the country. We again emphasize the fact that the prices are always as low or lower than similar goods can be obtained elsewhere. Another point of importance:

Every statement made by our salesmen will be endorsed by us, a fact which adds satisfaction to every purchase.
